CLERK OF TRACES over the line changed for the first time in ten years. The election was held at the rate of 10 cents per vote. HURRY IN ADVANCE.

As to the question of estimating election returns, the News generally knows a thing or two about its own county. Our estimate ten days before the election was 400 and the returns about 407.

There is to be a statue made of the Transvaal President, and Mrs. Oom Paul insists that it shall be made with a hat on which can be hollowed out and serve as a drinking bowl for the birds—sort of loving cup.

San roads and bad whiskey will keep our community down as long as they are tolerated. Thank the Lord that Breckenridge county is getting rid of the former, and it is only a question of a little time when the whiskey traffic will be sent home.

The results of last Tuesday's election show very decidedly the nomination of Mr. Bryan next year by the Democrats and that of Mr. McKinley by the Republicans. The fight of 1896 will be repeated in 1901—the gold standard vs. free silver at 16 to 1.

One of the most marked features of Tuesday's election was the general success of Democratic tickets in many cities in States carried by Republicans. A few notable successes are New York city, San Francisco, Cincinnati, Detroit, Boston and Watertown, N. Y. The reason is that there are voters in large cities who are willing to trust the Democratic party with the administration of national affairs while they distrust it in National and State affairs.

The good women of this town are in the saddle. They say the nation needs, and any sane man knows, that when the women take hold of a thing, it generally goes their way, so being a man and knowing the women as well as we do, our advice is—men will fall into line just as well as to do it as last for if you don't it will do it for you. You had better leave town. It is the whiskey fight that the women are right. No man can deny it. It is not a matter of dollars and cents or public policy with them, but it is a question of good homes, order, husbands and sober sons.

THE MONEY QUESTION TO BETHESDA OF THE NEXT CAMPAIGN.

Senator Morgan of Alabama, as quoted by the Herald as saying at Washington on Thursday that the late elections settled the question of the money issue of next year's campaign, against the re-nomination of Mr. McKinley on a gold platform. "It will be a free fight," he said, "and it is to be fought on the gold platform, against sound money and McKinley," said Mr. Morgan.

"The money question," in the opinion of the Alabama Senator, "will be the predominant issue in the next campaign," necessarily, for "the Democrats will be obliged to make the fight again on the Chicago platform, and if the Republicans try to force some other issue to the front, they will not be able to do it," he affirmed.

The issue of "imperialism," he asserted, all the figures possible, "is in the campaign just closed and it is counted to appear. Why it will not appear in the campaign of next year is thus explained by Senator Morgan:

"I hardly look for either expansion, imperialism or trusts to cut any material figure in the next campaign. In my opinion, based on information derived from my connection with the money and foreign relations, that we will have very little about expansion and imperialism a year hence. There is good reason to believe the Philippines will be disposed of, and probably by the Democratic party, at the election. President McKinley evidently has that idea in view, and his Republican friends are equally so. In bringing about such a result as will make it difficult for the Democratic party to make any political capital out of dead issues."

That, unquestionably, is the view supported by common sense. The Philippine question will be settled by legislation of the next Congress, in which, however, even Democrats, even McKinley, will like the Senator Morgan, will be constrained to join. Then there will remain to the Democratic party as distinctive issues for the campaign only the issue of the Chicago platform, of which, it is contended, Bryan, will be the embodiment. Consequently, as Senator Morgan says, leaving nothing else to fight for, that party will be left to fight on the next national contest on maintaining the Chicago platform and free silver to the "New York Sun."

A fair count is that every good, law-abiding citizen wants. If Mr. Goebel recants a majority of the votes cast, he ought to have it. It is a pity that all this quibbling over names and titles and topographical errors on the ballots is a waste of the political tactics. Men of intelligence and fair minds should not stoop to such little things.

Going to Corra.

George Streifer of the firm George Streifer & Son, furniture dealers in Louisville, was a guest of Mrs. George Jordan a few days last week.

Mr. Streifer accompanied his daughter this far on her trip to San Francisco where she will take a steamer for Corra. He goes to that place as a Presbyterian missionary and expects to arrive at his destination at Christmas time.

Min. E. B. Parsons has moved to Louisville.

Miss Elsie Miller is the guest of Miss Benson Board.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Palo have taken rooms at the Harris hotel. Tomorrow the Parsons' Institute will be held here, the 20th and 21st.

Leo Bishop is putting a coat of paint on the wood work at the jail.

Dr. Davis has leased the farm of 118 acres from the Meador heirs for five years.

A new line of women's dress shoes just received at the Edgemoor Place at $1.00 per pair.

Mrs. Miller and her daughter, Miss Anna Miller, have returned from a visit to Big Springs.

Wade Shackelford and Isaac Smith went to their home in Meade county last Friday on a visit.

The Telephone Company placed one of their Central in the Harris hotel last week. It helps the service.

Hon. Charles Blanford and Walter Piggott were here last Friday, the day the vote of the election was counted.

Richie and Hayes left last Thursday morning for St. Paul, Minn., where they will make her home in the future.

Look out for the great leather sale in shoes and clothing at auction in Harrisburg on early day. V. G. Harbague, auctioneer.

Young Henry Hays, who accompanied his mother to Louisville last week, buggy ride with Sam Hennings of West Virginia for $30.00.

Miss Etta Clarkson, who is in the millinery business in this county, desires us to say that she has spent over seven years in the business and understands it thoroughly.

Tom Blythe, Roscoe Ekridge, Clayton Beard, James Harris, and Clarence De Haven are the new board of trustees of the Breckenridge Hospital. Dolph Board was elected manager.

In a short talk to mothers we can tell them that at the Edgemoor Grocery they can find just what they need. We have a special leather and patent leather tie shop.

The town council met last Tuesday night for the first time since September. There was but very little business before the board. The Marshal was instructed to enforce the dog ordinance by requiring every one that owned a dog to pay a tax of two cents.

Stock in the gold mines of Transvaal was good time for investment.

Rev. A. J. Gordon who is conducting the revival at the Baptist church in the city of Louisville, he is reported to be an evangelist of great force. For the most of the summer last, passed he has been in Louisville, Ky. in the south and has met with great success. The members of the Baptist church here are fortunate in securing his services.

Does Your Back Ache?

In constant pain when on your feet? Is that dragging, pulling sensation with you from morning till night? Why not put the medicine exactly on the disease? We apply the cure right to the spot itself? You can do it with

Dr. Ayer's Cherry Balm

Placed over the chest it is a powerful aid to Ayer's Cherry Balm; relieving congestion and drawing out all inflammation.

Plaster

Immediately after the Plaster is applied, you feel the warming, soothing, inflaming quality. No plaster ever had such complete control over all kinds of ailments.

There was a great deal of interest taken in the election of the new trustees and it was held in this city last Tuesday.

Meas. John D. Herdin, D. S. Richardson, E. A. Coleman, and Wm. Sebastian were elected. Geo. H. Casper and Tim McClinton, Sr. tied.

This was the independent ticket and a good one. Let each man, and I believe he will, set for the best interest of the town and country.

A man comes to be a gentleman and should be withdrawn from a campaign, who makes use of coarse, rough and ungentlemanly language in the presence of ladies.

There is and can be no excuse made for it. I am very glad that I remained with a pleasant friend on the Gehlrich road and speech day instead of being present to listen to abuse and vituperation from his colleagues.

No men who believe in force and violence is a true Democrat who instead of force and reason.

Have heard the men or women who nurse it and all selfishness robs the mind of its divine insight and cheats the soul that would know. I do not and cannot care in bolts and bars and brutality. I do not believe in governing by force or threat or any form of coercion.

I am always interested in our own town. It is a very good town and in the better of life. Wm. Bowling, whose father was reared here and whose grand father was our postmaster for many years, has attracted my attention to his town as being a most energetic, ambitious, successful teacher. So taught last year at "Free and Easy" and without any solicitation has the same district in the town of the town.

Most of the people of the town are well informed politicians and have made some good campaign addresses. Have hoping he may reach the very corner of success.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has saved me from a very bad cold. It is the best of its kind. It is a very good medicine. It is a very good medicine. It is a very good medicine.

Kipling and the Autograph Hunters.

A West Philadelphia girl who is an enthusiastic autograph collector, has recently added Rudyard Kipling to her collection. It would cost of $2.00. From her experience it would seem that the Rudolph post is not much of a "cheat-mind" but rather a "cheat-mind."

On the contrary, he believes in turning to a good account, and it is his duty to do so. He is a very good man. He is a very good man. He is a very good man.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST.

As we were coming from Marion last Saturday eve, my attention was directed to an advertisement, "Davies County Whisky."

The thought came to me, I will not have an opportunity to see it for I am in Cloverport, but can write it for me.

The play given by Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bennett last Thursday night was enjoyed by all.

W. J. Hyman and D. C. Thompson, our enterprising merchants, have led in a beautiful assortment of winter goods.

We understand the Indiana Saw Mill Co. will leave Liberty right soon for Owensboro, Ky. They have a fine extensive business at that place this fall.

We congratulate Mr. Smith on being Representative of this county. May Smith be an industrious and educated man and we wish him a worthy record.

The Republican rally at this place last Wednesday night was interrupted by some parading boys who misbehaved themselves. We trust our friends will do better when they come again.

We are thankful that the county helps provide for its paupers and widows; but we don't consider it an act of justice for marriage to be on a boom. Hence at present candidates are scarce but I hope they will brighten at Christmas time.

I notice in the News that there are some going to the place in other sections of the county, but it has been some time since we had one here. Last summer the preacher got so much competition that the rates were lowered and marriage was on a boom. Hence at present candidates are scarce but I hope they will brighten at Christmas time.

Devil's Work.

An ingenious but unsuccessful attempt was made on Monday morning last to wreck the train of the Breckenridge Canal Coal company at a bridge near Owen, about three miles from Cloverport. A piece of two inch plank was placed across the rail at one of the high points of the bridge and a heavy pole was placed across the plank and a heavy pole was placed across the plank and a heavy pole was placed across the plank.

Another reason for the failure of the attempt was the fact that the plank was placed across the rail at one of the high points of the bridge and a heavy pole was placed across the plank and a heavy pole was placed across the plank.

TOM GO- ABOUT'S GIFT

A Man With Occult Powers
Over Chickens and Dogs.

NEVER OPERATES IN PUBLIC

Chickens Never Squawk When He Takes Them From The Roost.

Vicious Animals Tamed Under Mysterious Influence.

A man with a mysterious occult power over chickens and dogs is a business of supplying valuable dogs and chickens to a large clientele in St. Louis, says The Post-Dispatch. He has a large domain and has a practically inexhaustible supply. Every dog and chicken between the river and the Chain of Rocks, the St. Louis river and the Mississippi river is at his disposal, and if this supply proves insufficient, he can draw on the towns in the country and across the river.

All you have to do is choose your dog. You may see your choice out walking with his owner or in your own back yard and may notice his clean cut head, his square muzzle, his fine head, or his ugly disposition.

Then you give your order. You say, "Now, there's a dog in a town near back yard and may notice his clean cut head, his square muzzle, his fine head, or his ugly disposition."

"What's in it?" the answer will come just that way.

You state your price—anything from a bottle of whisky to $20, according to how much you want the dog, and if everything is satisfactory the dog will be in your back yard next morning early.

Once, in a saloon on Cassin street, Curran, a butcher of 29th St. and the St. Louis river, was telling a group of friends about the various things he had just acquired. The animal was kept in a stable in the rear of his home.

"No man alive, except one, can go within the circle of his chain without feeling behind a mountain of clouds and mist," said Curran. "I have to throw his meat to him from a distance. I say."
